

I am responsible for the operation of 6 high precision GPS units on a regional scale for transportation surveying purposes. This involves the maintenance of a network of GPS points created using L-1 frequency. The L-1 frequency must not be disturbed to keep these units working and to reestablish the network that many transportation networks rely on.